Lady Lions Note Yuletide Season

Torrance Lioness Club, joined by their husbands, the Torrance Lions, will celebrate the Yuletide Season of 1966 with their annual cocktail and dinner party on Saturday evening, Dec. 10.

At 8 p.m. the party-goers will assemble at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luis Assink, 5349 Bayridge Rd., Palos Verdes Peninsula for a "good cheer" cocktail party. A special holiday treat is in store as Mrs. Assink will serve hors d'oeuvres, native to Holland, her homeland. In keeping with the season, the table will be covered with a red cloth and appointments will be in crystal and silver. Serving on the cocktail party committee with Mrs. Assink are Mmes. Clarence Clark, and Ross Morris.

The Lady Lions and their guests will then travel to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ritchie, 27930 Alvarez Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula, for a sit-down dinner at 9:30 p.m. On the dinner committee with Mrs. Ritchie are Mmes. Bob Williams, Milton Isbell, Mott Farrell, Byron Chan, Paul Burnam, and Jack Smith.

After the dinner, a gift exchange will be held around the decorated Christmas tree.

DECEMBER 4, 1966

Dreaming of a White Christmas, Redondo Beach Dianas chose "Snowflake Frolic" as the theme for their annual Christmas dinner dance. The formal affair will be held at Caesars' restaurant on Saturday evening, Dec. 10. The cocktail hour is set for 7:30 p.m. with a filet mignon dinner at 8, under the chairmanship of Mrs. George Eastham. A combo will furnish dance music. Miniature Christmas trees, sprinkled with snowflakes, will be table decorations. Here, Mrs. Wait O'Brian, left, decorations chairman, hangs a decoration while Mrs. Howard P. Towle and Mrs. Anthony Credico, Jr. talk over last minute details for the holiday event. (Press-Herald Photo)

Ner Tamid Sisterhood
Presents First
Holiday Bazaar

The Sisterhood of Congregation Ner Tamid of the South Bay is inviting friends and neighbors to attend its first "Holiday Bazaar."

The event will be held on Sunday, Dec. 11 from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd., Torrance.

Among the numerous and festive booths will be a delightful boutique shop, another booth with a display of all kinds of homebaked foods and handicraft items; a book store and a wide variety of brand new clothing for the family, fabrics, groceries, and canned goods. All of these bazaar items are being offered at bargain prices.

In addition, from 12 noon until 3 p.m., a complete spaghetti dinner will be served. Throughout the day, light refreshments will be available.

Homeowners to Install At Dinner

Newly-elected officers of the Palo Del Amo Woods Homeowners' Association will be formally installed at a Dinner Dance, to be held on Jan. 21, 1967, at Ports O' Call Restaurant, San Pedro.

Ticket sales will be limited to association members until Jan. 10; the tickets will then be available to guests living outside the community. The dance is being co-chairmaned by Mrs. Vesta Carpenter and Mrs. Pat Garrett. Tickets may be purchased from any of their committee, Patti Chikahisa, Nancy Graves, Joan Kline, Darlene Limbocker and Joan Roberts.

NEW DRESS FASCINATION

Along with the usual holiday bazaar items, Sisterhood of Ner Tamid Congregation, will offer new brand name clothing at their first bazaar on Sunday, Dec. 11, at the Torrance Recreation Center. Delighted with the array of new dresses to be offered are Sisterhood members from left, Mmes. Herbert Beres, standing; Irving Yesnick and Ike Mizarahi, seated and Sidney Fried, standing. Sale hours are from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. (Press-Herald Photo)

AND SANTA CLAUS WILL BE THERE!
